Jean-Louis Fougeray, the talented winemaker behind Domaine Fougeray de Beauclair, is perhaps best-known for his family's domaine in Burgundy.

After 20 years in Burgundy, he now enjoys the freedom of making wine in the Languedoc-Roussillon. His smooth, rich syrah, reminiscent of wines from the northern Rhône, comes from his 1.5ha Languedoc estate.

Jean-Louis Fougeray.

At a special introductory price of just £4.99 a bottle, it offers exceptional value for money.

There is no doubt Jean-Louis brings a Burgundian touch to his wines which exhibit the richness and flavour of the Languedoc grapes, made with an unmistakable elegance.

Rich and concentrated with ripe black fruits and spicy, violet aromas. Full-flavoured and well-rounded with dark, chewy bramble notes and spicy complexity from oak maturation. Delicious with roast pork or stuffed mushrooms.
